Dear Mr. Dulles:

Thank you very much for your kind letter of April 18
in regard to my work with [redacted] and others in New York
in connection with the case of [redacted]

It has been a great pleasure and privilege to work with such dedicated souls as [redacted] and his associates in this matter, and I think we all feel gratified that the right solution has been found.

We hope that some time you may honor us with a visit here at the Fletcher School.

Sincerely yours,

Robert B. Stewart
Dean
